Handwritten Burmese script on a palm leaf manuscript. The text is arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines, written from right to left. The script is a traditional Burmese style, likely from the 18th or 19th century. The leaf shows signs of age, including discoloration and two distinct circular holes, which were traditionally used for threading a cord to bind multiple leaves together into a book format. The ink is dark and the characters are well-defined, though some fading is visible in certain areas.
