Handwritten text in Burmese script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a cursive style and spans multiple lines across the page. It appears to be a record or a list of items, possibly related to a military or administrative context, given the use of terms like 'သား' (son) and 'သမီး' (daughter). The text is organized into several columns, with some lines starting with a small circle or dot, possibly indicating a new entry or section. The script is dense and characteristic of traditional Burmese writing.
