Handwritten note or correction below the seventh line of text.

Small handwritten mark or symbol at the end of the text.

Handwritten Burmese text on a palm leaf manuscript. The text is arranged in several lines, with some characters written in a larger, bolder script. The script is a form of Burmese, likely from the 19th or early 20th century. The text appears to be a historical record or a list of items, possibly related to military or administrative matters, given the context of the National Archives stamp. There are some small annotations and corrections written above and below the main lines of text.
