Handwritten Burmese script on a palm leaf manuscript. The text is arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines across the length of the leaf. The script is a traditional form of Burmese, likely from the 18th or 19th century. The leaf shows signs of age, including discoloration and some wear along the edges. There are two small dark circular holes visible, which were traditionally used for threading a cord to bind multiple leaves together into a book format. The text appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a religious or historical narrative, given the context of such manuscripts.
