

ଅଧିକାରୀ, ଭୁବନେଶ୍ୱର

Handwritten text in Thai script on a palm leaf manuscript. The text is arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines. The script is a traditional Thai style, likely from the 19th or early 20th century. The leaf shows signs of age, including discoloration and several dark, irregular holes or tears, particularly in the center and right portions. The text is written in dark ink, and some characters are clearly legible, such as 'พระ' (Phra) and 'เจ้า' (Jao) in the first line, which appears to be a title or a religious invocation. The overall appearance is that of an ancient or historical document.
