Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is organized into several lines. The script is dense and characteristic of early modern European handwriting. The text appears to be a formal document, possibly a contract or a legal record, given the use of terms like "König" (King) and "Land" (Land). The text is written in a single column and is surrounded by a simple border. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of wear and discoloration.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is organized into several lines. The script is dense and characteristic of early modern European handwriting. The text appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to a legal or administrative record. The handwriting is consistent throughout, suggesting a single scribe. The paper shows signs of wear, including creases and discoloration.
